DYDEE SERVICE

Helping to save the world, one baby at a time.

December 9, 2023

To Our Valued Customers,

This document provides the billing periods for each day of the week's diaper route. This letter serves as an addition to our Service Guide. The most recent copy of the Service Guide can always be found on our website. When you are ready to stop the service, please give us a two week notice. The first week will be your last delivery, the 2nd week we will pick up all our inventory.

The Accounting Department will send your monthly email statement different weeks of the month depending on what day your delivery day is. If your account is behind on payment before you receive clean diapers you may receive door statements from your route/sales driver. As long as you have our diaper inventory in your home, the weekly charges continue because we are still providing diapers for your baby. The accounting Department will issue statements once a month; if you make changes to your account during the month, they will be reflected on your next monthly statement.

Monday and Friday deliveries – Statements sent by end of 1st week each month

Tuesday deliveries - Statements sent by end of 2nd week each month

Wednesday deliveries - Statements sent by end of 3rd week each month

Thursday deliveries - Statements sent by end of 4th week each month

Our payment terms remain “payment before receipt of clean diapers”, just like if you went to the store to buy diapers. You are responsible to pay for your weekly service prior to receiving your diapers that week, even if our Accounting Department does not send a statement to you before that first week of delivery. If you receive a door statement from your driver it lets you know you are behind on payment.

If you are using Automatic credit card payments, this procedure means that we will be running your credit card certain Mondays (please see the attached pages for Auto-charge card dates per delivery day).

For customers not on Automatic credit card payments, we have attached a schedule for each delivery to show you each month when to make your payment(s) at the beginning of each month's billing period. You can make as many payments as you want each month as long as you are paying for that week's service before you receive the clean diapers.

If your account is past due, we reserve the right to hold delivery of clean diapers, until you pay for the services already rendered. If you lose or misplace any of our inventory you will be billed per the prices listed in the Service Guide.

If you have any questions, please let either Lisa (in Customer Service) or me know. Thank you for using our service.
